Different Types Of Socks

Socks can be of different types. Apart from sports socks designed especially for sports activities, there are fashionable socks. These socks are usually characterized by unusual design and bright color palette. Though socks are not the part of our outfit that is visible, yet some funny touch may still catch eyes of your friends, colleagues or passers-by. Usually people who wear unusual yet fit into the general trend socks may be remarked for attention to detail. Fashionable socks are designed to fit any occasion. However, they are best suited to suit and tie. Let's discuss different styles of fashionable socks.

To begin with, striped socks are considered to be the second choice of men. These socks are out of time and fashion. The stripes on such socks may be thin or big, bold or transparent, but the pattern still remains versatile. Such socks usually come in dark colors like brown, blue and black, and in light ones like white, caramel or lemon. Sometimes fashion designers would mix different colors to highlight the personality of the buyer. Imagine someone walking in subtle blue socks with vibrant stripes of yellow or green. You will consider the person wearing such socks as an experimental, bold, or risky. Such socks refer one to luxury and self-confidence.

Another great type of socks is harlequin socks with chequered effect. Imagine how these socks will enliven the plain sternness of a business suit. What will look great with grey or navy blue suit are yellow and emerald socks. The use of different stripe thickness is another way to make your personality look brighter. Socks which are made of different thread look chic if you prefer classic look.

Argyle socks add British flavor to any look. These socks have a special diamond pattern on their fabric. The best argyle pattern offer a three-dimensional look if diagonal lines intersect diamonds. Usually these socks are worn as casual wear. People wearing them get a nostalgic country look. However, these socks can also be worn with formal suits of dark grey or navy blue color. Yet, these socks are meant for casual clothes.

What is more, the spotted socks. These socks are even better and more popular than striped socks. They look better than striped socks with formal clothes. They look a bit old fashioned but in fact they are out of fashion. Traditional spotted socks have small spots of the same color. However, brighter spots of different colors will make better look with stylish suit. The socks of natural or black color look great with bright red spots.

And finally, floral socks have a special appeal about them. They may be suited both for formal and casual wear. They will look great if you wear such socks for wedding. Floral socks usually go in great collections of various patterns and colors.
